

Jesus' Triumphant Entry

The disciples brought a donkey to Jesus and threw their garments over it, and he sat on it.

Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields. Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, "Praise God for the Son of David! Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Praise God in highest heaven!"

Then Jesus entered the Temple. The blind and the lame came to him and he healed them. (from Matthew 21 and Mark 11)
